Transforming your hospital

The state-of-the-art Cancer Centre at Barts opened in 2010, complementing the existing Breast Care Centre. The second half of the new hospital at Barts will become a Cardiac Centre of Excellence, due to open in 2014.

Our priority is to ensure patient safety while this work takes place, but some disruption and noise is inevitable. We are sorry about this – please bear with us. If you are concerned about the effect of the building work on your care while you are in hospital, please tell a member of staff.

Getting to Barts

If at all possible, please use public transport to come into hospital, or ask someone to drop you off:

Tube:

The nearest underground stations are Barbican, Blackfriars, Farringdon and St Paul's. Barbican and Farringdon are served by Hammersmith and City line, Metropolitan line and the Circle line. Blackfriars is served by the Circle line and the District line. St Paul's is served by the Central line.

Rail:

Blackfriars, City Thameslink and Liverpool Street are the nearest National Rail stations.

Buses:

The following buses stop outside or close to Barts: numbers 4, 8, 25, 56, 172 and 242.

Drop-off point for taxis and cars:

Patients can be dropped off in the Square, which can be accessed via Henry VIII Gate on Giltspur Street.

Parking:

There is no public parking at the hospital itself, but there is metered parking in surrounding streets and an NCP car park in West Smithfield.
