

Patient information

Tell us what you think of our services – a guide to making comments, compliments or complaints

Barts Health NHS Trust aims to provide excellent care and meet the needs of patients and visitors. We welcome feedback so that we know what works and what improvements need to be made.

Providing positive feedback

If you want to comment on our services or would like to thank or compliment staff you can use the form provided in this booklet and hand it to a member of staff. Alternatively you can post the form, or write directly to the Central Complaints Team, 3rd Floor, 9 Prescot Street, London, E1 8PR.

If you would prefer you can also provide feedback online:

Raising a concern

If you are concerned about the care or service you or a relative are receiving, please talk to a member of staff as soon as possible and let them know.

We always aim to resolve people's problems as they arise. If you are dissatisfied or have any concerns please tell a member of the ward, clinic, or departmental staff and they will do their best to resolve the matter there and then.

Please be reassured that raising a concern or making a complaint will not affect your care now or in the future in any way; complaints are confidential. We promise to listen carefully to what you say and do everything we can to resolve your issues and find out what went wrong. The following services are also available to help you:

Patient Advice and Liaison Service (PALS)

PALS offer free confidential help and advice to our patients, relatives and carers. They can:

- Assist you with support and information about your treatment or visit, and answer any questions about our services
- Provide information about other local NHS, community and support services and provide information on the NHS complaints process
- Listen to your concerns, suggestions or queries about our hospital services and feed them back to the Trust. Both positive and negative comments help us to continually improve patient experience
- Help resolve problems that service users may have experienced either as an inpatient, outpatient or visitor to the hospital.

Making a complaint

If we have been unable to resolve your problem and you know you want to make a complaint, there are a number of ways to do this.

Face-to-face

You can tell a member of staff involved in your care that you want or need help to make a complaint. You can also ask to speak to or discuss your complaint with the senior person on duty or manager in charge.

The PALS, AIRS or the Central Complaints Team can also help people access the Complaints process if required. The numbers are provided below.

By telephone

You can telephone the Central Complaints Team for advice on the complaints process on 0207 480 4776 or 0207 480 4719. They will listen to your concern and can offer advice on the options and actions available to make a complaint.

In writing

You can complete the form at the centre of this leaflet and either hand it to a member of staff, or post it to the Central Complaints Team who will ensure your letter is dealt with promptly and by the right people.

By email

You can email your complaint to: complaints@bartshealth.nhs.uk

Through our website

Go to <http://www.bartshealth.nhs.uk/get-involved/provide-a-compliment,-comment-or-concern/>

If you have any comments, complaints, compliments or suggestions about our services – please tell us by filling this form

If you would like a personal reply, please fill in your details.

Please detach your completed form and hand it to a member of staff or post it to the Central Complaints Team, 3rd Floor, 9 Prescott Street, London E1 8PR.

If you are completing this form for someone who is not able to give their informed consent, please complete the below section.

Consent to investigate

I confirm that I wish Mr/Mrs/Ms/Miss to act on my behalf and receive all information relevant to my complaint. I understand that information from my health records may need to be disclosed to those involved in dealing with my complaint. I also understand that all information relating to my complaint will be kept completely confidential and will in no way affect my future care.

Signature

Date

Please state why the complainant cannot give consent

When should you make your complaint?

Ideally your complaint should be made as soon as possible and within 12 months of realising you have cause to complain.

Consent to carry out an investigation

If you are making a complaint on behalf of someone else, we will need that person's written consent to carry out an investigation even if it's on behalf of a close family member or friend. A form is provided for this purpose at the centre of this booklet.

What happens next?

Think about the outcomes you want as a result of your complaint. A member of staff from the service investigating the complaint (governance lead) will contact you within three working days of receiving your complaint to confirm receipt.

If you have complained on someone else's behalf, we will ask that person for permission to liaise with you and to disclose to you any relevant information about their treatment and care, unless a valid consent form has already been provided.

We will contact you to discuss how you wish your complaint to be handled and negotiate a timescale within which to respond.

We will carry out a full investigation, and may invite you to discuss your complaint in person, or ask you for further information. You will then receive a full response from the Trust usually by letter, unless an alternative method has been agreed with you.

If there are likely to be any delays with our investigation, we will contact you as soon as possible to explain why. You can always contact the lead investigator of your case for an update on the investigation.

Thank you for taking time to make your comments, compliment or complain. The information you have provided will be treated confidentially. The equality information will be used by Barts Health NHS Trust to help us to monitor the effectiveness of our equality policies.

What if you are still unhappy?

If you are unsatisfied with our response to your complaint please let us know why and we will do our best to resolve any outstanding issues.

If you are still dissatisfied, you may request an independent review of your complaint by the Health Service Ombudsman, who can be contacted at:

The Parliamentary and Health
Service Ombudsman,
Millbank Tower
London
SW1P 4QP

Telephone: 0345 015 4033 (08.30 – 17.30, Mon-Fri)

Email: Phso.enquiries@ombudsman.org.uk

Website: www.ombudsman.org.uk

The Ombudsman will generally only consider your complaint once you have completed the Trust's complaints procedure and received your final response.

If the Ombudsman is of the opinion that the Trust can do more to resolve your complaint, they will refer your complaint back to the Trust. It is therefore very important to allow the Trust every opportunity to try and resolve your complaint.

Our commitment to you

Barts Health NHS Trust is committed to being open with its patients. If any problem affects your treatment or care, we aim to be proactive in telling you openly and honestly what has happened, at the earliest opportunity. Where necessary, we will conduct further investigation and in all cases we will give you information, try to answer your questions and tell you what we are going to do to put the matter right. The same applies whether we learn of a problem as it occurs, or from something that you tell us, or from the investigation of a complaint or incident.

Data protection Act 1998

The Trust processes your personal information for delivery of high quality healthcare. Your health records could also be used for teaching, training, audit and research, which enables us to deliver the best possible care across the Trust.
